	Religious college no. 1	Religious college no. 2	Secular college no. 1	Secular college no. 2
	Polar	Moderate	Moderate	Polar
Religious orientation of campus membership	Favorable to a specific religion	Favorable to a specific religion	Widely diverse	Skeptical
Campus intellectual mind-set toward religion	Defender of the faith	Seeker of the truth	Seeker of the truth	Discourager of the faith
Openness to discussing religion	Open to one religion; either avoid or discuss other religions so as to "know the enemy"	Open; privileging one religion but fair to all; seeking truth where it may be found	Open; fair to all	Limited but discouraging especially of traditional religion
Orientation toward the general academy	Skeptical	Sympathetic but discerning	Sympathetic but discerning	Sympathetic but not discerning
Religious curriculum	Extensive; heavily oriented toward study of one faith	Extensive; considerably oriented toward the study of one faith but with a fair amount of breadth	Proportionate recognition of the importance of religion in a study of human history and the human condition	Limited, even ignoring
Teaching ethos	Considerable indoctrination	Intellectually open	Intellectually open	Considerable indoctrination, even if not recognizing it as such